Date of decision: 23/08/2002

ORAL JUDGEMENT

By means of filing this petition, the petitioner has challenged the order of detention dated 9-3-2002 passed by the Police Commissioner, Ahmedabad City, and he has been branded as a dangerous person.

2. It is a settled principle of law that in order to bring a person within the expression "dangerous person" as defined in clause (c) of section 2 of the Gujarat Prevention of Anti-Social Activities Act, 1985 (for short 'the Act of 1985'), there should be positive materials to indicate that such person is habitual of committing or attempting to commit or abetting the commission of offences which are punishable under Chapter XVI or XVII of Chapter V of the Arms Act and that single or isolated act falling under the said Chapters cannot be characterised as a habitual acts as envisaged in section 2(c) of the PASA Act. Further, besides a person being a dangerous person, his activities should also fall within the ambit of expression 'public order'. A distinction has to be drawn between the 'law and order' and 'maintenance of public order'. A reference may be made of M.J.Shaikh V. M.M. Mehta, Commissioner of Police & Ors., reported in 1995 (2) GLR 1268.

3. Ms.Banna Dutta, learned advocate for the petitioner has submitted that two statements were recorded on 6th March 2002 while verification has been done on 7th March 2002. Drawing my attention towards pages 27 and 28 of the compilation, she has contended that at the time of passing the impugned order of detention, detenu was in judicial custody which aspect ought to have been considered by the detailing authority. In this connection, she has relied upon the case of Amritlal and Other Vs. Union Govt. Through Secy., Ministry of Finance and Others, AIR 2000 S.C. 3675 wherein it was held at Head note as under:

"Prevention of Illicit Traffic in Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances Act (46 of 1988), S.3--Satisfaction of detaining authority--"Likelihood of detenu moving an application for bail"--not sufficient--It is different from "Likelihood to be released on bail"."

4. It seems that there is non-application of mind on the part of detaining authority in passing the detention order as the detenu was in judicial custody when the order of detention was passed which aspect has not been considered by the authority and hence, in view of the judgment rendered in Amritlal (supra), the continued detention of the detenu is illegal and the same cannot be sustained. Since a co-detenu has been released by this Court, on the ground of parity also, present detenu is entitled to be released.

5. The petition is allowed. The impugned order of detention dated 9-3-2002 passed against the detenu is hereby quashed and set aside. The detenu JAVEDALAM BHURIO S/O MOHMMEDASLAM ANSARI is ordered to be set at liberty forthwith, if not required in any other case. Rule is made absolute accordingly with no order as to costs. Direct service is permitted. Yadi be sent to Bhavnagar District Jail.
